

Thank you

I would like to thank you for your interest and support in the articles sent from www.salesunited.co.uk over the past few months. I will still write articles but now these will all be available together on the new website so that people can visit and view the articles at their leisure as well as those from contributors.

I have had a change in my business, growing and taking on more and more outsourced sales work and have rebranded as Sales Operations UK Limited (SOUL) please see <http://www.salesoperationsuk.com> if you haven't visited the new site as yet.

A lot of the subjects explored in the Sales United articles are discussed much further in my new book, 'Professional Telesales', which is now available through Amazon, Waterstones, Borders and other good retailers.

As we continue to grow and support many other companies with their sales I hope that you will continue to be a part of our progress and keep in touch!

Speak soon and in the meantime...

Happy Selling!
